SENIOR HAPPENINGS

At last, we are seniors. We were beginning to think this day would never come. But, thinking back, the time went all to fast. As freshmen, we were scared of initiation and the seniors. We didn't know our way around because the third floor was unfamiliar to us. But we survived!

High school's novelty had worn off by the time we were sophomores. It was beginning to be fun. We all knew what was going on, and we liked it. Towards the end of the year, we ordered our class rings and waited anxiously for them to arrive.

Our rings came in our junior year. Everyone went around flashing them like we were the first class to ever get them. Then came the planning of the Junior-Senior Prom of 1973. What fun it was decorating the gym, writing out invitations, and going to the prom!

The time came for us to be seniors much too soon. At first many still felt like juniors and it was hard to believe we were the oldest on the floor. When we saw the new freshman class, we remembered what it was like, just three short years ago. We attended the prom, and now wait for graduation.

We are happy to finally get out of school, but we know that we will miss it. The halls will always remain in our minds as a place of joy, laughter, and friends. We will always want to come back to our many memories, to football games, plays, basketball games, music, concerts, and to our friends, but we know it will never be the same. Only some of us will come back, but all of us will remember the Dow City School as a place we shared, a place where we grew up, and a place of things we liked best.

Dow City's new foreign exchange student is Telma Birchal, daughter of Ydernea and Hennio Morgan Birchal. She is the oldest of 7 children. Telma comes from Belo Horizonte, Brazil, a city of about 1½ million people. Her American family is the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Laubscher.

Telma got to the United States by plane, a trip which took 9 hours. There were stops in New York and in Chicago, but she did not see much of either city.

The two languages that Telma speaks are Portuguese, Brazil's national language, and English. She has been taking English in school for 4 years and now speaks it very well. When asked why she took English that long she replied, "Everybody wants to learn English, it is a universal language." Telma knew that she was coming here last July and felt "very happy" about it. "I think the American people are very kind" she told a group of students sitting in the gym.

Telma's school in Belo Horizonte is called "Escola Estadud de 2nd Milton" a rather long name for a school. There are 3,000 kids enrolled in this school. In Brazil, there are 8 grades in the elementary and 3 grades in high school. As for subjects, the students have no free choice in anything but English or French. Telma's subjects included; chemistry, physics, biology, math, world history, Brazil History, geography, P. E., civics, English and Portuguese. Since both of Telma's parents are teachers of Portuguese she was required to speak very good Portuguese at home. All these subjects were not taken in one day but were spread out during one week. Her subjects in Dow City include Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Sociology, and Trigonometry; "a little harder schedule than most kids take, but Telma has said that she wants to be a doctor and these subjects will certainly help with that. In the school she used to go to, school was held 3 times a day. Some kids went from 7 AM to 12 noon, Telma went from 1 PM to 5:30, and others went from 7 PM to 11 at night. This is because of the big population of school children.

In her spare time Telma likes to swim, read, and pick on the guitar. While in Brazil she often went to dancing parties, to the cinema, and to night clubs.

Sports in the Brazilian schools include American soccer which they call Football handball, volleyball, and competition swimming. There was a swimming pool in her school that Telma enjoyed very much.

When speaking to her you must speak slowly and clearly with no slang or she will not understand you. She reads and writes English, and uses a little better English than most native Americans. About English she said "to learn it is not difficult, it is difficult to speak", she does have a definite accent which she will probably smooth out after having been here awhile.

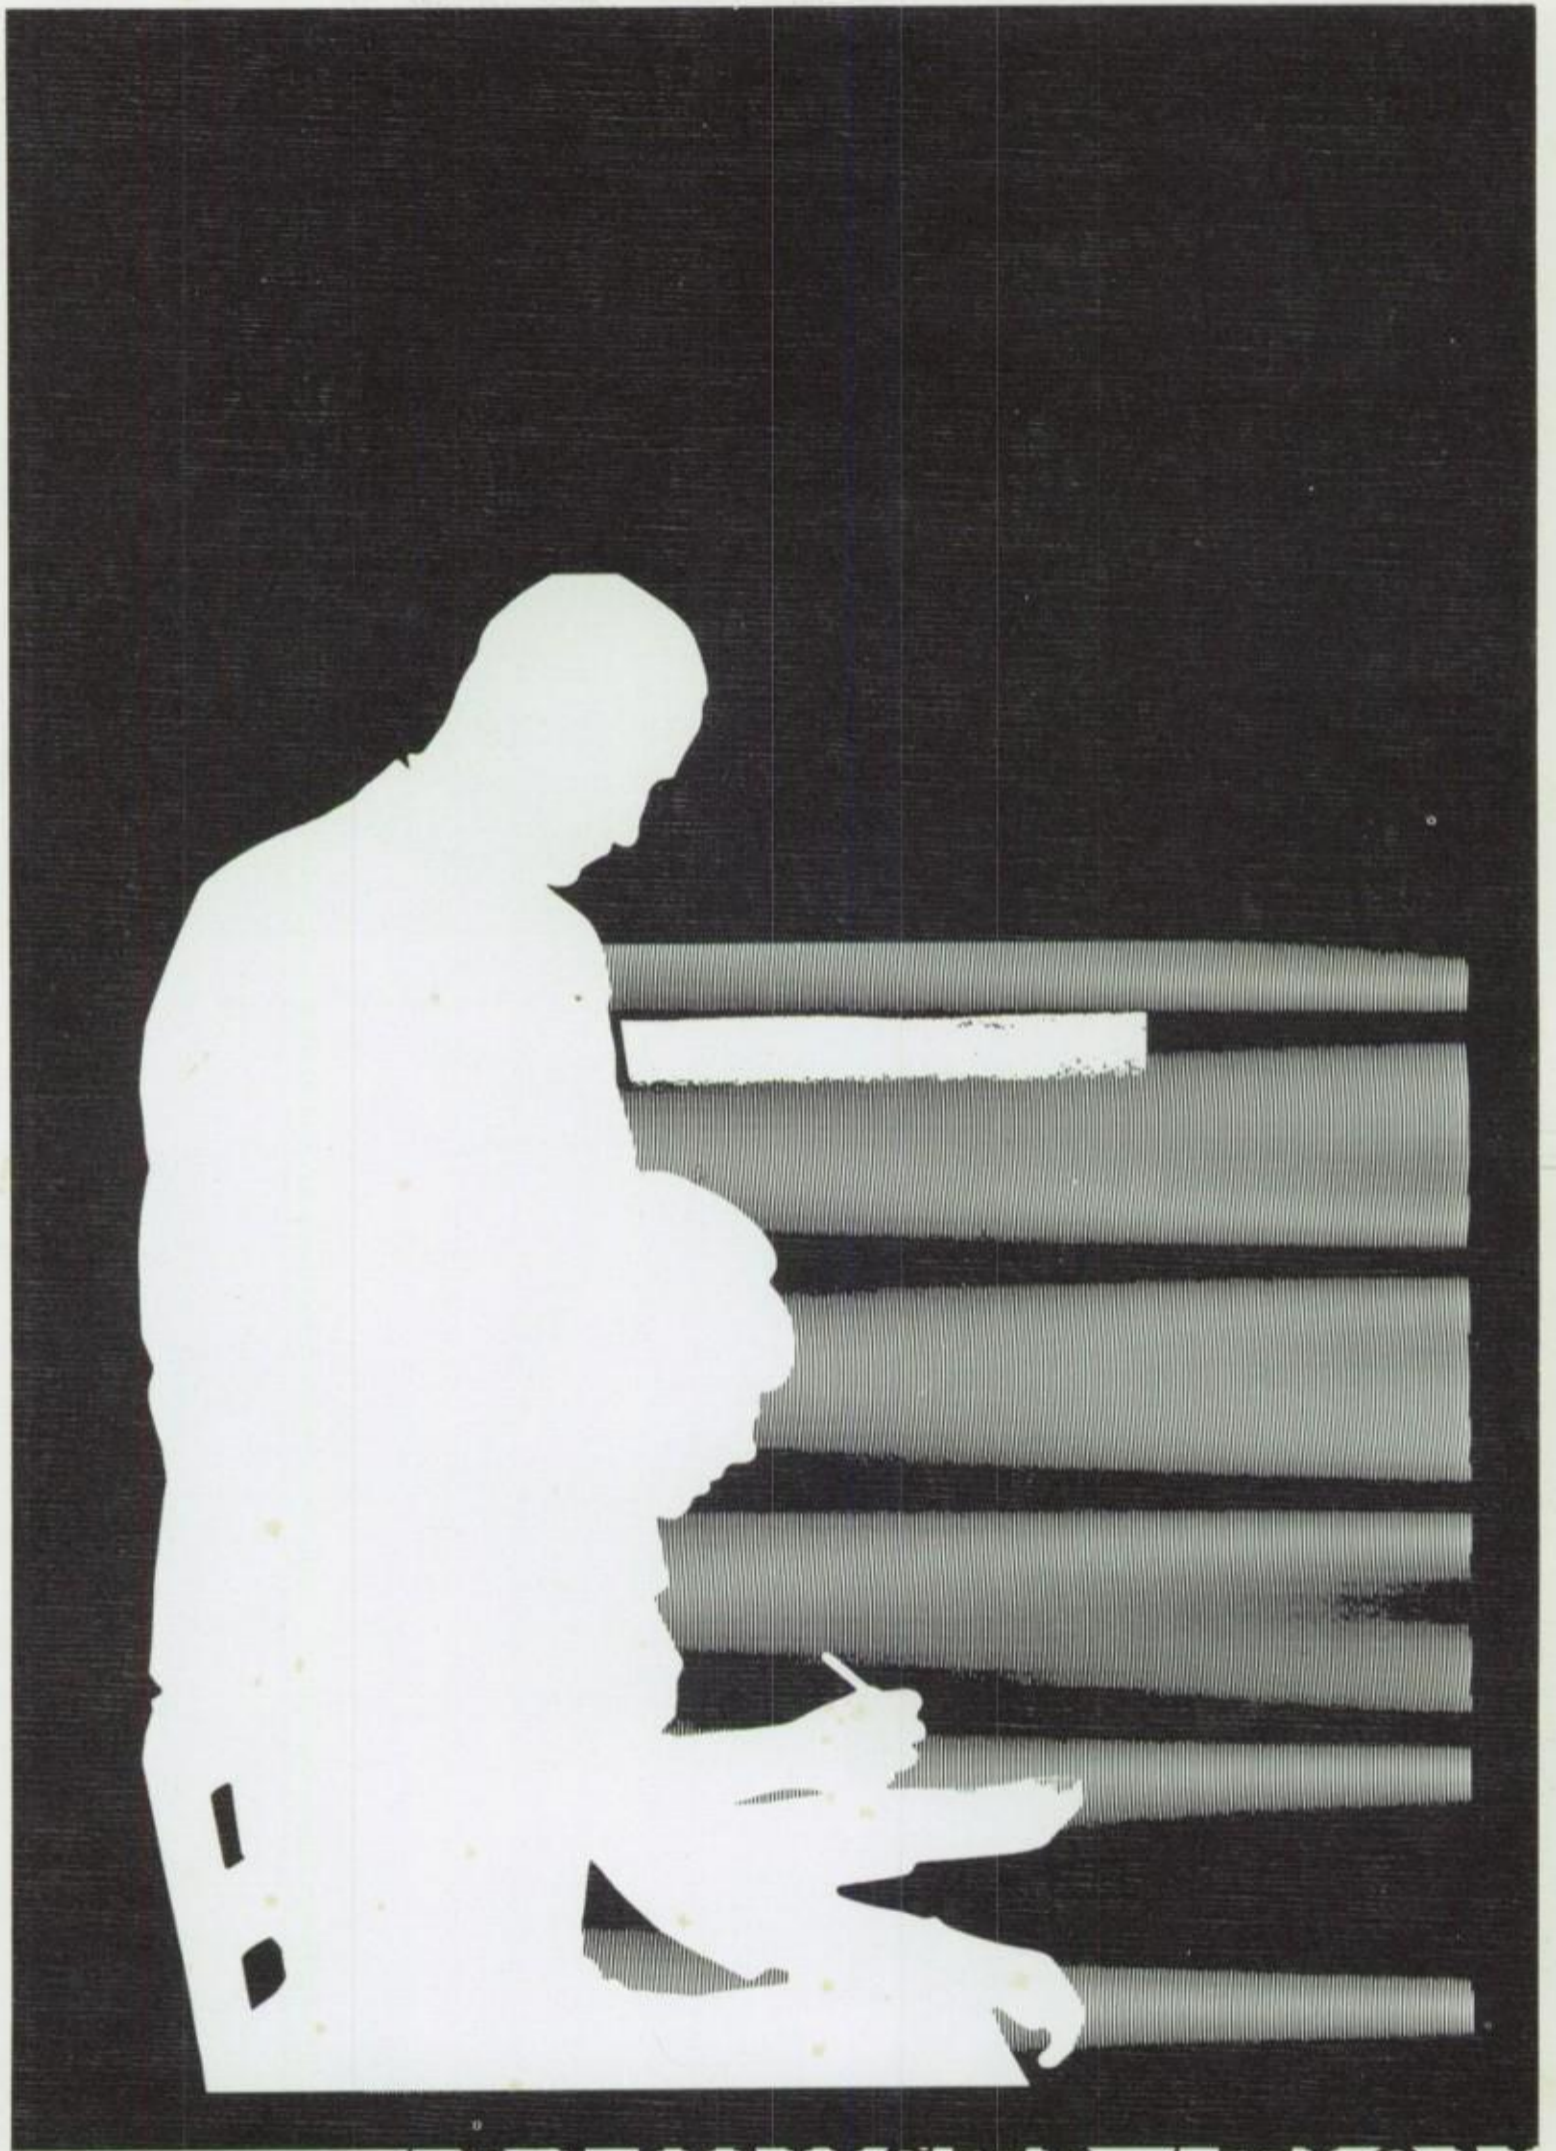

As this chapter in our lives comes to an end, a sadness accompanies graduation. Happy times of high school are over, only treasured memories in the pages of time.

It is time now to make our mark in the world we have learned so much about. For some, this means a continuation of education. For others, this means a job or marriage. Even from a small school such as ours, a career as an adult means something different to each of us. That is because we are individuals.

In time, we realize that we acquired more than pages of fun in the books of our lives when we went to school here. We gained knowledge that we will always use. Most important of all, we learned to learn. We learned to be ourselves, and to gain further insights as years pass.

The joys of high school are gone, but happiness is not lost to us. We find new friends in our new lives, but we can still enjoy the old ones. We continue to grow, finding fulfillment in many, many ways, from a successful career to raising children of our own.

When we are old, we can turn back to these pages and smile. We will know then that our motto held more truth than we realized: "Our lives are not bound by the rivers of our memories."

To my past teachers, Mr. Friedman I leave my ability to cut someone down and to Mr. McCright the book "JOHNATHON LIVINGSTON SEAGULL". And last but not least to Mr. Streck the many times I actively participated in Government class discussions. Finally, I dedicate my part of this annual to Mrs. Clarice Rule, my Kindergarten teacher for starting me off on the right foot.

I, Lonny Kolln, with sound mind and muscular body will my locker to no one because on one in the other classes is worthy of locker 18. To Mr. Cary a deck of cards so he doesn't have to take ours in study hall.

I, Debbie Langenfeld, will to Sheryl B, Lucinda C. and Carol C. my sewing ability and my sewing drawer for them to fight over. To Debbie V., I will my lucky white basketball shoes (someone had to be the odd one-why not another Debbie). To Reed, Gene and Gordon, I will my great shooting ability. Maybe someday they will be able to shoot baskets as well as me. To next years homecoming queen I wish a year of happiness and fun. I dedicate my annual to my family and friends!

I, Joan Leinen, being of sound mind and body would like to will to Lu Ann C. all my basketball ability since she seemed to like the bench, my straight hair to my sister Dee, my pom pom outfit to anyone who can fit in it, and to Deb Vogt my ability to meet the right people. I would like to dedicate this annual to my family.

I, Debbi Merritt, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath the following worldly possessions: to Tom Gorman my ability to drive since he can't get the hang of it, to Gene L. my ever loving charm which he has a good start, to Alice M. my ability to pass the Biology test, to Carol B. my height, cause now I'm not the shortest, she is, to Deb Stein all the fun I've had through high school, to Kathy T. my shyness (hoping she'll catch on), last but not least to my teacher Mr. Streck, from whom I've learned the most these past 12 years. I would like to dedicate my annual to my family, whom I love very much and who helped me to become what I am today.

I, Dan Muff, will the following to Denny L. the ability to run on and off the field every play not just half time, to Reed R. my ability to start in athletics, and to some unlucky freshman my ability to spend 4 years in this place.

I, Jeri Nelson, being of brilliant mind and wonderful body, (Ha! Ha!) will to the following people my most treasured possessions: To Ms. Voelker I leave a center fold of Bert Reynolds to be hung in the library, to Mr. Loftus I leave my book of 10001 dirty jokes, to Keith Samuelson & Tom Houston & Avis Beam I leave my shyness, to my brother Rick I leave all the A's I got in Mr. Streck's classes, to my sister Tam I leave my wonderful driving ability (although she thinks she is already the best driver in the world). To quiet Rose Lambert I will my big mouth and to all the others in High School I will all the fun I've had the last 4 years. Last but not least I dedicate this annual to my family and friends who make my life the wonderful, happy, thing it is.

I, Melanie Ohl, being of superior mind and body hereby bequeath to Rose Lambert my natural straight hair, to Lucy Weber my ability to stay out of trouble, to Keith Samuelson my chair in the Library, to Mary Brasel my locker if she can get the bubble gum out of the corner, to Monica my place on the A honor roll if she can ever find it. And to the DCA School halls I leave my crutch marks forever.

I, David Peters, being of fantastically superior mind, and average body do hereby bequeath these few worldly possessions to my friends; to Laura Churchill I leave 2 reams of paper and an empty ink tube, to Rod Greder I leave my right front fender, and to Jeff Muff I leave this fatherly advice, "Don't!" To my little sister Dorothy I leave happiness for the future and last but not least I leave my Presidency of Student Council to anyone who enjoys being yelled at. I would like to dedicate the annual to the future and the prospects that it holds.

I, Marie J. Schmitt, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to argue with Mr. Streck (and win) to Marilyn S. and Linda F. my ability to sing and my chair to Mary B., to Craig C. my ability to do his accounting, Dorothy S. my ability to do my Shorthand. I leave to Rob B. my ability to run the halls and to any poor person who is willing to take my place (which no one can). I dedicate my part of the annual to my family for putting up with all of it.

I, Linda Schnuettgen, do hereby will to Bobby Beam my artistic ability, to Debbie Brink my ability to do more than run off dittoes, and to Sheryl Thomsen my thinness. I dedicate the annual to Mr. Cary for his willingness to take responsibility for every annual he has helped produce.

I, Jan Shanon, being of sound mind (?) and body do will the following: To Dee Leinen and Lu Ann Christianson my psychiatric abilities, to Cindy Samuelson my drawing ability, to my little sister Dort. my cooking skills, and to Ron Lary and Rod Greder all the fun I had in high school. Last but not least I dedicate this annual to my family, for if they hadn't pushed and helped me, I never would have made it.

I, Laurie Sharp, of sound mind and body will my ability to the following: To Charleen Green my great skill of driving, to Ponce, my brother Dave, Cheryl H. my nickname Turkey, to Joe and Ron my place on the corner. To all the 8th grade girls my skill at playing Basketball, to Roger Waserich how to play cards, Reed Reitz the fun of living in the country. To my younger sisters babysitting on Saturday nights. To Rick Wingrove my ability to keep his mouth shut. I dedicate the annual to Mrs. Rule.

I, Carolyn Simon, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following: My A in Art to Bobby Beam, my ability to keep my mouth shut to everyone who needs it and all the fun I've had in High School to the Freshman Class. I would like to dedicate this annual to all the people who have made my life liveable, both teachers and friends.

I, Mike Stephens, will my ability to Mr. Gorman to weld 18 plates and to anybody who can cut a straight line with the acetylene torch.

I, Katie Truitt, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will anyone who can clean my locker the privilege to have it. To Pat T. my ability to get along with you know who, to my little brother Mike my great skill in skipping. To Debbie L. my ability not to get a hickey (??), To the little jr. high girl my ability to have money. Last but not least, to any other little devils, the ability to have my most prized possession, my seat in detention. I dedicate my part of the annual to my Auntie Barb, for everything she did for me.

I, Dawn Weaver, being of sound mind and body do hereby will the following: To Lucy W. my ability to stay sane in band, to Roseanne L. my "Chiquita Banana" song, to Denny L. our Biology "talks", to Rod G. a personally autographed guitar pick, and to Shirley B. my best wishes. I do hereby dedicate this annual to Telma Birchall, a friend I am glad to have had.

I, Jane Samuelson, will to Laura C. my french horn and #1 chair. To Cindy S. my locker #28, since it has been handed down to the rest of us Samuelsons. To my little brother Keith, the ability to stay out of mischief while in school, and last but not least, Sherri, you may have ALL of my evening activities. Dedication of annual goes to the class of 1975.

I, Geraldine Beam, will to Melinda U. my body even though we're the same size, Alice my shyness, also to Melinda, one of my boyfriends, and to Monica, some more fun times in Denison. I want to dedicate the annual to Mom and Dad.
